

12659 - Does Swallowing Vomit Break Fast?

the question

A fasting person vomited then he swallowed a little of his vomit unintentionally. What is the ruling?

Summary of answer

If you cannot help vomiting, your fast is valid. Also, swallowing vomit unintentionally does not break the fast.

Detailed answer

Praise be to Allah.

“If he vomited deliberately, his fast is invalidated, but if he couldn’t help it, then his fast is not invalidated. Similarly it is not invalidated by his swallowing some so long as that was not deliberate.” And Allah is the Source of strength. May Allah send blessings and peace upon our Prophet Muhammad and his family and Companions.” (Standing Committee for Academic Research And Issuing Fatwas, 10/254)
