

145858 - Can he give zakaat al-fitr to the poor in the form of cash if they will not accept food?

the question

Is it permissible to give the poor zakaat al-fitr in the form of cash instead of food, if they will not accept food?

Detailed answer

Praise be to Allah.

Zakaat al-fitr must be given in the form of food, and it is not permissible to give it in the form of cash.

But, if the poor will not accept food and ask for cash, it is permissible to give it in the form of cash in that case, and in that case one will be excused for not giving it in the form of food.

Shaykh Ibn 'Uthaymeen (may Allah have mercy on him) said:

With regard to one who knows that it must be in the form of food, but he gives it in the form of cash because it is easier for him, that is not acceptable. But in the example mentioned by the questioner, if we cannot find anyone who will accept food, i.e., there is no one who will accept the rice or dates or wheat, and they will not accept anything but cash, in that case we may give it in the form of cash. So we should work out the cash value of a saa' of average quality food and give it to them.
