Detailed answer

Praise be to Allah.

The Prohibition of Using Magic to Treat Magic

Whoever is affected by magic should not treat it with magic, because evil cannot be removed by evil, and disbelief cannot be removed by disbelief. Evil is removed by good. Hence when the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) was asked about An-Nushrah (treating magic with magic), he said: “This is the work of the Shaytan.”

Nushrah means removing magic from a person who has been affected by it by using more magic.

But if it is treated by means of the Quran and permissible medicines or good Ruqyahs, there is nothing wrong with that, but treating it with magic is not permitted, as previously stated, because magic means worshipping the devils.

magic and the Role of the Shayatin

The magician (or practitioner of witchcraft) does magic or learns magic only after worshipping and serving the devils, and drawing close to them by means of the things that they like. After that, they teach him the means of magic.

The Effectiveness of Medical and Spiritual Treatment

But, praise be to Allah, there is no reason why the person who has been affected by magic should not be treated by means of reciting Quran and the prayers for refuge with Allah that are prescribed in Shari`ah, and permissible medicines, just as patients with all kinds of sicknesses are treated by doctors.

The Role of Allah’s Decree in Healing

The patient does not necessarily recover, because not every sick person does recover. A sick patient might be treated and then recover if his appointed time (of death) has not yet arrived, or he may not recover and may die from this sickness, even though he may have been seen by the most skilled physicians and knowledgeable doctors. When the appointed time of death comes, no medicine or treatment will be of any avail, because Allah says (interpretation of the meaning):

{And Allah grants respite to none when his appointed time (death) comes.} [Al-Munafiqun 63:11]

Medical treatment is of benefit when the appointed time has not yet come, and Allah decrees that His slave should be healed. The same applies in the case of one who has been affected by magic; Allah may decree that he should recover, or He may not decree that, as a test and a trial, or for other reasons which are known to Allah.

Among those reasons may be the fact that the one who is treating him does not have the right treatment for this problem. It was narrated in an authentic report that the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) said: “For every disease there is a medicine, and if that medicine is applied to the disease, he will recover by Allah’s Leave.”

And he (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) said: “Allah has not sent down any disease but He has also sent down the cure; the one who knows it knows it and the one who does not know it does not know it.”

Ruqyah as a Remedy for magic

Among the treatments prescribed in Shari`ah is the treatment of magic with recitation of the Quran. The greatest Surah in the Quran, which is Al-Fatihah, should be recited over the person who has been affected by magic. This should be repeated several times. If it is recited by a believing, righteous reader who knows that everything is subject to the will and decree of Allah, that Allah is in control of all things, that when He says to a thing ‘Be!’ and it is, if the reciting is based on faith, piety and sincerity, and is repeated several times, then the magic may be removed and the person may recover by Allah’s Leave.

Some of the Companions (may Allah be pleased with them) passed by some Bedouins whose Shaykh, i.e., their leader, had been bitten. They had done everything they could but he had not gotten better. They said to one of the Companions, “Is there any Raqi (one who performs Ruqyah) among you?” They said, “Yes.” So one of them recited Surat Al-Fatihah over him, and he immediately got up full of energy as if nothing had happened; Allah healed him of the ill-effects of that snakebite.

The Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) said: “There is nothing wrong with Ruqyah so long as it does not involve shirk.” He (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) performed Ruqyah and had it performed for him.

There is a lot of good in Ruqyah , and a great deal of benefit. Al-Fatihah, Ayat Al-Kursi, “Qul Huwa Allahu Ahad”, Al-Mu`wwadhatayn (Surat Al-Falaq and Surat An-Nas) and other verse may be recited over the person who has been affected by magic, as well as good Du`a’s narrated in the Hadiths from the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him), such as the Du`a he said when he performed Ruqyah for a sick person and said, “Allahumma Rabb Al-nas, adh-hib il-ba’s, washfi anta Al-Shafi la shifa’a illa shifa’uka shifa’an la yughadir saqaman (O Allah, Lord of mankind, remove the harm and heal him, for You are the Healer and there is no healing except Your healing, with a healing which does not leave any disease behind).” This may be repeated three times or more.

And it was also narrated from him (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) that Jibril (peace be upon him) performed Ruqyah for him and said three times: “Bismillah arqika min kulli shay’in yu’dhika, wa min sharri kulli nafsin aw `aynin hasid Allah yashfik, bismillah arqik (In the name of Allah I perform Ruqyah for you, from every thing that is harming you, from the evil of every soul or envious eye may Allah heal you, in the name of Allah I perform Ruqyah for you).”

This is a great Ruqyah which was narrated in authentic Hadiths from the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him). It is prescribed to perform Ruqyah for the one who has been bitten or stung, and the one who has been affected by magic, and the one who is sick.

There is nothing wrong with performing Ruqyah for one who is sick or has been affected by magic or bitten or stung, by reciting good Du`a’s, even if they were not transmitted from the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him), so long as they do not contain anything that is prohibited, because of the general meaning of the Hadith of the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him): “There is nothing wrong with Ruqyah so long as it does not involve Shirk.”

Allah may heal the sick person and the person affected by magic, and others, without any Ruqyah and without any action on the part of other people, because He is Able to do all things, and He is Wise in all that He does. Allah says in His Holy Book:

{Verily, His Command, when He intends a thing, is only that He says to it, ‘Be!’ and it is!{ [Ya-Sin 36:82]

To Him be praise and thanks for all that He wills and decrees, for He is wise in all that He does.

The sick person may not be healed if his appointed time has come and it is decreed that he should die from this disease.

The Power of Specific Quranic Verses in Ruqyah

Among the things that may be used in Ruqyah are the verses which speak of magic, which may be recited into water. These are the verses about magic in Surat Al-A`raf, where Allah says (interpretation of the meaning):

{And We revealed to Musa (saying): 'Throw your stick,' and behold! It swallowed up straight away all the falsehood which they showed. Thus truth was confirmed, and all that they did was made of no effect. So they were defeated there and returned disgraced.} [Al-A`raf 7:117-119]

And in Surat Yunus (interpretation of the meaning):

{And Pharaoh said: 'Bring me every well-versed sorcerer.' And when the sorcerers came, Musa said to them: 'Cast down what you want to cast!' Then when they had cast down, Musa said: 'What you have brought is sorcery, Allah will surely make it of no effect. Verily, Allah does not set right the work of Al-Mufsidin. And Allah will establish and make apparent the truth by His Words, however much the Mujrimun may hate (it).'" [Yunus 10:79-82]

And in Surat Ta-Ha (interpretation of the meaning):

{They said: 'O Musa! Either you throw first, or we be the first to throw?' Musa said: 'Nay, throw you (first)!' Then behold! their ropes and their sticks, by their magic, appeared to him as though they moved fast. So Musa conceived fear in himself. We (Allah) said: 'Fear not! Surely, you will have the upper hand.

And throw that which is in your right hand! It will swallow up that which they have made. That which they have made is only a magician's trick, and the magician will never be successful, to whatever amount (of skill) he may attain.'} [Ta-Ha 20:65-69]

These verse are among the things by which Allah causes the Ruqyah against magic to be beneficial. If the reader recites these verses into water, and also reads Surat Al-Fatihah, Ayat Al-Kursi, "Qul Huwa Allahu Ahad", and Al-Mu`wwadhatayn into the water, then pours it over the person who he thinks has been affected by magic or is being prevented by magic from having intercourse with his wife, then he will be healed by Allah's Leave.

If seven lotus leaves are ground up and added to the water as well, this is appropriate, as was mentioned by Shaykh `Abd Ar-Rahman ibn Hasan (may Allah have mercy on him) in Fat-h Al-Majid, quoting from some of the scholars in the chapter entitled Ma ja'a fin-Nushrah.

It is recommended to recite the three Surahs, namely Qul Huwa Allahu Ahad, Qul A`udhu bi Rabb il Falaq and Qul A`udhu bi Rabb in-Nas.

The point is that these and similar treatments which are used to treat this problem of magic, may also be used to treat the one who is prevented by magic from having intercourse with his wife. This has been tried a great deal and Allah caused it to yield results.

A person may be treated with Al-Fatihah alone and be healed, or with Qul Huwa Allahu Ahad and Al-Mu`wwadhatayn on their own, and be healed.

It is very important that the person performing this treatment and the person who is being treated should both have sincere faith and trust in Allah; they should know that He is in control of all things and that when He wills a thing it happens, and when He does not will a thing it does not happen. The matter is in His hand, whatever He wills happens and whatever He does not will does not happen. When both the reader and the one who is read over have faith and are sincere towards Allah, the sickness will disappear quickly by Allah's Leave, and both physical and spiritual medicine will be beneficial.

We ask Allah to help us all to please Him, for He is All-Hearing and is ever Near.
