

9994 - Ruling on giving names from aayahs of the Qur'aan

the question

Some people call their children by names from aayahs of the Qur'aan, such as Afnaan and Aalaa, etc. What is your opinion?

Detailed answer

Praise be to Allah.

There is nothing wrong with that, for these are created things. Aalaa' means blessings and Afnaan means branches. People have started to look for more variety in names and are looking for new names for their sons and daughters.
